32s Count Cotton Jamdani

A lightweight and breathable handloom fabric, 32s Count Cotton Jamdani is woven using fine 32s cotton yarn, offering a soft hand feel and comfortable drape for everyday and occasion wear. Crafted on traditional handlooms, each Jamdani buti is individually handwoven using the extra-weft technique, making every motif an integral part of the fabric rather than a printed or embroidered embellishment.

This fabric features all-over Jamdani buti motifs, creating a delicate, textured surface that reflects the richness of traditional craftsmanship. The evenly distributed butis add understated elegance while maintaining the fabric's lightness and versatility.

56s Count Khadi Cotton Jamdani

A fine and breathable handloom fabric, 56s Count Khadi Cotton Jamdani is woven using handspun cotton yarn, celebrated for its natural texture, lightweight feel, and exceptional comfort. The fabric embodies the essence of traditional Khadi craftsmanship while showcasing the intricate artistry of Jamdani weaving.

Featuring all-over handwoven Jamdani buti motifs, each motif is meticulously created using the traditional extra-weft weaving technique, where every buti is individually inserted by hand during the weaving process. This results in a subtle textured surface and a distinctive handcrafted character that cannot be replicated by printing or embroidery.

The finer 56s count yarn gives the fabric a softer hand feel, enhanced breathability, and an elegant drape, making it ideal for contemporary apparel as well as timeless handcrafted garments. Combining the rustic charm of Khadi with the refined beauty of Jamdani, this fabric reflects India's rich textile heritage while promoting sustainable and artisan-led craftsmanship.
